

Ms Persis Mistry

Our student from Allied Health sciences, Ms. Persis S. Mistry was recently awarded the United States President's Volunteer Service Award (PVSA) in the Year 2018 for her outstanding volunteer service. Ms. Persis S. Mistry was a United States citizen and completed her graduation in US. She is currently studying Physician Assistant course in Allied Health sciences, School of Medicine, Medicine at D Y Patil University Navi Mumbai.

This is the highest civilian honor that a person can achieve in volunteer service, the President's Lifetime Achievement Award in Volunteer Service!

Ms. Persis at her age of 26 has amassed thousands of hours over the course of the past 11 years as an active volunteer in her community through a variety of different organizations. She has partaken in a variety of activities such as teaching English to students in impoverished areas, donating supplies and food to homeless shelters, delivering medical supplies as well as administering medical help to those in impoverished areas, aiding in rebuilding and repairing churches and local camps affected by natural disasters and so much more.

It is through this kind of an investment of over more than a decade is when a civilian as young as her gets awarded with this level of civilian honor. The same should not only make her family but all of us proud.

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

Congratulations on receiving the President's Lifetime Achievement Award.

On behalf of a grateful Nation, I thank you for your lifetime of service to your fellow Americans and those most in need. Through at least 4,000 hours of service, you have ensured the continuation of America's unparalleled commitment to improving the lives of others.

You have served as a model of the American spirit. Your many hours of service have strengthened the bonds of cooperation and trust that bring people together, while helping to address some of the greatest challenges of our time.

One of our Nation's greatest strengths remains the compassion of our everyday citizens, who give so willingly of themselves and their lives for the benefit of others. Each generation of hardworking and kindhearted volunteers helps to write a new chapter of American greatness, and our Nation is proud for your commitment to this honorable tradition.

As we reflect on your many acts of kindness and charity throughout your life, our Nation draws inspiration from those who answer the call to help their communities and our Nation. With your continued efforts to build on our Nation's culture of service, America will proudly remain a land of freedom and opportunity for all.

Thank you for your enduring commitment to serving your community and our Nation. I trust that you will continue to work for the betterment of others and an even stronger future for the American people.
